SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

TED GEST • The Crime Report

Ted Gest oversees the daily news digest “Crime and Justice News” for The Crime Report, and reports and blogs on criminal justice developments in Washington D.C. and elsewhere in the country. Ted covered the White House, the Justice Department, the Supreme Court, and legal/justice news during a 24-year career at U.S. News & World Report. He is president of Criminal Justice Journalists, the nation’s only association of criminal justice reporters, which he co-founded in 1997. From September 2011 through March 2015, he served as public information officer for the Washington, D.C., Attorney General. A veteran journalist, Ted began his career at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch (his native city). A former coordinator of the Council of National Journalism Organizations (2003-2006), Ted has been cited by the National Council on Crime and Delinquency, and won an American Bar Association Silver Gavel Award. He is the author of Crime and Politics (Oxford University Press, 2001). He is a founding partner of John Jay College’s Center on Media, Crime and Justice. Ted is a graduate of Oberlin College and the Graduate School of Journalism at Columbia University.

DARA LIND • Vox

Dara Lind is a staff writer for Vox.com, covering immigration and the justice system. Her recent work has included reporting on the child migrant crisis. She previously held positions at America’s Voice, the Kauffman Foundation, and the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities. She is a graduate of Yale University where she studied Anthropology.
